

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES 2020-2021

Hereford High School provides a variety of extracurricular activities for its students. The following listing provides information about these activities that students will find helpful.

CLUBS

- ACTS OF KINDNESS CLUB This club is open to all students who wish to help others without personal gain. The club will meet monthly and students will devise new and inventive ways to contribute to both their community and their school while learning how to “pay it forward.”
Ms. P. Middleton
pmiddleton@bcps.org
- ANIME CLUB This club is for students interested in Japanese pop culture in the form of anime, video games, music and art styling. We will meet twice per month to watch, draw and discuss anime.
Ms. P. Kopp
mkopp@bcps.org
- BEST BUDDIES Best Buddies matches students with intellectual and developmental disabilities with students without an intellectual and developmental disability to create a one-on-one friendship. The mission is to cross the invisible line that too often separates those with disabilities from those without.
Ms. S. Powers
spowers@bcps.org
- BLACK EXCELLENCE This club gives Hereford students a safe space to discuss and educate themselves on struggles and injustices impacting the black community. Activities may include round-table discussions, researching and discussing historically black colleges/universities, educational outreach for our school community and working alongside the H-Zone Global Club on the Cultural Coalescence event. This club is open to all Hereford students.

Hereford High School has an enrollment of approximately 1200 students and competes in the MPSSA (Maryland Public Secondary Schools Athletic Association) in the 2A and 3A classifications. Hereford Athletes participate in 25 varsity sports and 21 junior varsity teams.

The Hereford Athletic Program is rich in history and accomplishment with more than 475 Varsity County Championships, more than 285 Regional Championships and 70 State Championships. During the past school year Hereford won state championships in Girls' Indoor Track.

Many of Hereford's athletes go on to participate in collegiate sports at schools such as University of Maryland College Park, Bucknell, Boston University, James Madison, Towson, Rutgers, University of Maryland Baltimore County, Johns Hopkins, Morgan State, Salisbury State, Frostburg State, Washington College, McDaniel College, Roanoke College, Virginia Tech, Oregon, Vanderbilt University, University of Delaware, Delaware State University, Loch Haven, Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania State University, York College, Stevenson College and Goucher College.

Hereford High School is proud of the academic excellence of its athletes. On the average, more than 80% of all athletes attain a GPA of 3.0 or better during their sport season and are recognized by Baltimore County's All Academic Team, the highest percentage of students identified as All Academic of all the Baltimore County Public Schools. Approximately 76% earn 3.25 or better. Academic progress is monitored by the athletic staff each season and submitted to the Baltimore County Office of Athletics.

With more than 85 coaching positions, Hereford Athletics has an excellent overall program to meet the needs of its student population. Hereford also offers participation in the County's Allied Sports program. This program is established for students with a variety of learning and physical disabilities, as well as for those able-body students who prefer a less competitive environment.
